Department contact:

Tip or Complaint: The Hickman's egg farm is suspected to be dumping dead chickens into a "bloody pond" of water. I went on Google maps and looked over the farm and sure enough there appears to be a pool of red/brown water, along with a second pool in construction. Residents are worried for their well water being contaminated by the bacterial mess.

Update to Tip or Complaint:

Specific Directions to Site: Unsure as to how to get there exactly, but on maps it shows you go directly forward past the front gates.
